

WRITE UP

Today on 28th Feb 2018 HR (Zenith) club organized the “Situational Role Play”. Role-playing takes place between two or more people, who act out roles to explore a particular scenario. With an intention to help team members of AIMT to prepare for unfamiliar or difficult situations, this activity was initiated by the HR Club.

We had our respectable judges Prof Vidhya Lakshmi and Prof Surabhi Goyal in the panel. Director Dr. Rana Singh was the special guest of honour in the event. The anchors Jyoti Kumari and Manisha Aswal of MBA-14 started the event. The rules for the activity were conveyed to the participants by them. Every team had to present a role play on the given topic on the spot and then participants were given the order of presentation on the bases of chit system. Five minutes were given to each team to prepare for the role play after giving the topic.

To effectively engage the audience, till the time the participants were preparing for their role-plays, the coordinators initiated the game “Passing the Minnion”. Minnion was passed to everyone and when the music stopped, the student had to speak on the stage for a minute on the topic given by the judges. All the participants showed a great zeal and enthusiasm which spread lot of positivity amongst the audience.

Later on results were announced. The first prize was won by M Swati MBA14 and Nishant Kumar MBA13 of Marketing club. Devendar Singh and Bhagwan Singh of MBA14 from ISR club were runner ups for the activity. Finally the Director addressed the audience wherein he appreciated the efforts made by the students highlighting the significance of communication for effective execution of work. The event concluded by preserving the memories through a group photograph of all the Club members and the participants.

